artwalk 2.4.12

tonight's to do:

1. Akron Glass Works— Support your local economy! We have a wide variety of one-of-a-kind handmade gifts and free glassblowing demonstrations!

2. Millworks Gallery— There is no show in February. Check back next month!

3. Red Light Gallery— Check out "Le Circus" by Marcy Klausner, curated by Stefanie Musgrave-Witt, as well as new work in the main gallery.

4. Northside Grill— Midlife Chryslers at 9 pm!

5. 43 Furnace

Lower Level: Chris Klassen— Gorgeous contemporary art on a grand scale.

First Floor: Zeber-Martell Clay Studio and Gallery— Where design meets art and you meet the artists. Contemporary ceramic artwork from vases and bowls to beautiful tile wall pieces, each handmade piece contains a wealth of color and detail.

Second Floor: Kathleen Lucas-Walls Studio— Come up to the second floor to see vintage reinvented, one-of-a-kind jewelry, accessories and wearable art. Love is in the air. Romantic gifts for your Valentine or for yourself. Open 5-10 pm.

6. Icehouse Complex— Troy Myers Studio is open tonight. Stop by to see this creative model of live and work space. Also showing work by Ashley Limbach and Jake Thompson.

7. Summit Artspace Center— 5-9 pm

1st Floor:

Summit Artspace starts out its 10th anniversary gallery season with a show featuring works by four emerging women artists. Unmonumental Landscape, on display through February 25, is group exhibit of paintings, drawings and three-dimensional installations by Debra DeGregorio, Chrissy Lapossy, Sommer Tolan and Chelsea Blackerby. The young women explore personal understandings of the contemporary world through landscapes made from collections of ideas, objects and images.

3rd Floor:

Artists of Rubber City (AoRC) BOX Gallery— Don't miss Roller Derby Persona, photos by Toni Billick, through February 25. You'll also want to check out Off the Air and Out of Print, paintings by Adam Dumont.

Carolyn Lewis Gallery— Beautiful paintings. Stop by to see Carolyn's live demo from 5-9 pm. Children are welcome to get creative with easel drawings!

Terry Klausman Studio and Gallery— It is a new year and Terry has plenty of new work for your enjoyment. Beautiful colored pencil drawings and his trademark welded steel sculpture make this a "must see" studio!

7. Summit Artspace Center (continued) 3rd Floor:

Katina Pastis Radwanski Studio/Gallery— Katina will not be open this month. Check back in March!

Cari Miller's Sunthing Special— NEW! "Upcycled" earrings -- just $4.50 each or 2 for $8. There's also a unique selection of "Akron Pride" items, photography, paintings, T-shirts and lots of items using recycled materials at every price range. A great place to shop for gifts!

Connie Bloom's Quilting Arts Studio and Gallery— Connie's studio features whimsical and intricate abstract art quilts, landscapes and ecology pieces made from hand dyed and hand painted or recycled cloth. Extensive free motion work rewards close up viewing!

8. Rubber City Clothing— Stop by for the best Akron digs tonight and say hello to the fabulous Angela!

9. We Gallery/High Street Gallery/Uncorked Wine Bar— We Gallery is an eclectic gallery featuring a variety of artists and items for sale including jewelry, handbags, pottery and more!

10. todd v studio— todd will not be open this month. Check back in March!

11. Zelio NOTO— Warm up with your sweetie at NOTO! Enjoy hot cocoa and heart cookies! Open until 7 p.m.

12. Musica & Urban Eats...A Pop Art Café— Enjoy the fundraising Concert for Open M featuring Freez-R-Burn, The House Popes and Peep at Musica. Grab a tasty sandwich or pizza at Urban Eats while you enjoy the music.

13. Kiraly Fencing Academy Art & Antiques— is closed this evening. Check back in March!

Don't forget to stop by during the Artwalk!
